

AGENDA

28-29 June 2007, Massachusetts Institute of Technology b_TEC Conference: Strategic Challenges in Energy and Water, Barcelona. International conference that focuses on the most important challenges facing the energy and water sectors in coming years. The speakers, chosen in collaboration with MIT, will present the latest business strategies, market trends, costs and technological challenges of energies that will have a greater impact in the near future. Geared toward people who are responsible for the sector's corporate strategy. For further information and registrations: www.btec.org/tss007

2-6/9-13 July 2007, Seminars Tech Summer Sessions 07 Energy and Water, Barcelona. Wind Energy (2-3 July) Photovoltaic Solar Energy (4-5 July) Fusion Energy (6 July) Energy Efficiency (9-10 July) Sustainability (11 July) Water (12-13 July). The purpose of these sessions is to present the latest technological developments in each sector. Addressed to engineers and managers working in technological development areas, technicians of the Administration and technology centres and universities. The seminars are distributed over the course of two weeks under the themes Renewable Energies and Water Technologies. For further information and registrations: www.btec.org/tss07

2 July 2007, Renewable Energies and Water Technology Courses, Barcelona. Courses directed by UB and UPC with the participation of a number of organisations specialising in renewable energies and water technologies. Addressed to final-year students with an interest in renewable energies and water technologies. Recognition of elective credits by UB/UPC. For further information and registrations: www.btec.org/tss07